

Stories can be a source of hope and inspiration

The NEON study has collected many different mental health recovery stories.

We are looking for people who want to access these stories as part of a research trial.

Find out more and get involved: recoverystories.uk

The NEON Collection includes recovery stories from around the world.

As part of the NEON research trials you will gain access to the NEON Collection.
