

WHAT support can I expect?

As an e-learning Masters programme, your methods of study will largely focus on electronic media including:

- ✓ Online Seminars and Tutorials
- ✓ Online Video and visual media
- ✓ Articles and written resources
- ✓ Podcasts
- ✓ Electronic assessments and reporting systems

You will be guided on how to use and make best use of this approach to learning through structured training sessions, guided self-help on-line tutorials and one to one sessions with your nominated tutor.

There are four modules of study for the Post Graduate Diploma (a project will take candidates up to the full Masters):

- Theory and Practice
- Recovery Research
- Leadership for Innovation
- Policy and Legislation

“The EU Erasmus Life Long Learning Programme funds this innovative and prestigious European online modular MSc...”

As this is a European Masters, you are in a unique position of studying simultaneously with students from other European countries on the programme.

The e-learning approach to teaching offers flexibility of access and delivery which maximizes your interactive participation throughout the course.

WHAT equipment will I need?

You will need access to a computer with a web cam to be accepted onto the course.

You will also need to provide evidence (perhaps from an employer) that they support your application and / or that you can commit to the required study time to complete the course.

For more information visit www.raiseinrecovery.com

Or contact:

Vinay Shah, Professional Administrator:

Email: v.shah3@herts.ac.uk

Professor Brian Littlechild:

Email: b.littlechild@herts.ac.uk

Raise

International Masters in Mental Health
Recovery & Social Inclusion
(Subject to validation)

New Online Programme!

New!

International Masters in Mental Health Recovery & Social Inclusion (Subject to validation)

WHO is the Programme for?

Professionals from all disciplines, service users, carers, service managers, policy makers and those who aspire to be leaders in their areas of expertise and in their country.

WHY study for the MSc in Mental Health Recovery and Social Inclusion?

This 2 year part-time course will provide you with the knowledge and skills to make a difference to the recovery and social inclusion of people experiencing mental distress

The online mode means that you can study when and wherever you want anywhere around the globe. There are no attendance requirements, though you will be offered at least 2 individual online tutorials and 2 group tutorials, as well as regular email contact with tutors.

The EU Erasmus Life Long Learning Programme funds this innovative and prestigious European online modular MSc..

The MSc is a product of Partnerships with:

- University of Hertfordshire (UK)
- New University Lisbon (Portugal)
- The University of Torino (Italy)
- The Maria Grzegorzewska Academy of Special Education (Poland)
- Azienda Sanitaria Locale ASL AT, Asti (Italy)
- Experts by experience
- National Advisory Groups
- Professor Larry Davidson, Yale University, USA.

This is an innovative e-learning MSc developed through interactive partnerships between experts by experience, practitioners and academics in the areas of mental health, social inclusion, leadership and recovery.

Raise

FREE!

Selected students will register (subject to validation) for the Theory and Practice module to start in November 2013, and one module as allocated by the University from amongst the other 3 to commence March 2014, finishing in June. Those who successfully complete these will be eligible for a PgCert, or to register for the full Masters or PGDip if they prefer.

Entry Requirements

Normally a good first Degree or equivalent, and having involvement in mental health services delivery. Application forms are available on the University website <http://www.herts.ac.uk/home-page.cfm> under 'Courses'.

English language requirements: All students from non-majority English speaking countries require proof of English language proficiency.